

Royal Standard Minerals, Inc. (RYSMF): Current Activities on Its Nevada Projects

MANHATTAN, NV--(October 22, 2009) - Royal Standard Minerals, Inc. (OTCBB: RYSMF), announces that it is continuing with its plans to evaluate the potential of the recently acquired property in Nye County, Nevada. This work will include the evaluation of the gold resource potential of several properties within the Manhattan District that are known to contain gold-silver resources. These resources could be additive to the nearby Goldwedge project.

At the Pinon property in Elko County, Nevada the Company is reviewing the current status of its activities on the property over the past two years in regard to the mine permitting process. This work includes plans that should advance this property toward future production.

At the Fondaway Canyon property in Churchill County, the Company is in the process of renewing the water use, drilling and underground bulk sampling permits for this property.
